

“The targets of UD” Work Sheet ③-1

① Let's put words to apply to an underline.

- The handedness of UD

It is said that ____% of Japanese are left handed and feel is feeling difficulty in many situations.

UD's purpose _____ Judging from it, we have to design a product for both right-handed people and left-handed people.

UD in consideration for left handed people may help right handed people. Items that are not designed for _____handed people, could be a big merit for a lot of people.

- The age of UD

_____ hidden in the place imminent until just before that of the elementary school entrance to school from infants. For example, _____in buses or on escalators. For a solution for this, “_____” had taken away most steps in the bus. These Non-Step Buses are now in service in places. As well as infants, it is UD which can remove a ____ which is a barrier for various people. Someone puts a photograph on the toy box, and the device to make it easy to understand it is taken. The schools where the stationery which any person such as the scissors which do not depend on a _____could use easily was put increased. In addition, there are many schools where a slope, an _____is installed in.

Being an adult means that you will experience and see lots of new things in the outer world. An example of UD corresponding to many people includes _____ of the train. Seats that were used to be called “_____” in trains had changed their name to “Priority Seats” it is now for all people that have difficulty to stand up in moving trains. There are many UD which pursue the usability from _____.

Being an adult means that you will experience and see lots of new things in the outer world. Which means we will have more chances to use items that are designed universally with UD. The signal transmits information by the signature by_____ and the _____.

Various devices are done by UD corresponding to the generation. Many people were able to _____ treat them not a thing specialized in only an authorized person while being the design that it was thought led by authorized people.

NAME :