

Work Sheet③ – 2 The targets of UD

Let's put words to apply to an underline.

Name _____

UD for physical difficulty

The limbs inconvenience accounts for ___% of people with a physical disability.

It connected in it making a thing in consideration for UD when we remove a _____, and to think about a totally new design. For example, the ball-point pen thinks only that you use it by hand, but must think to what you use with not only it but also a mouth and the foot.

It is big and takes the space of a thing and the restroom losing a step as a laborer for the people with the foot disorder on a _____, and there is installing it by a _____. These devices are effective for a physically unimpaired person, and it may be said that it is one of UD aiming at _____.

UD for visual deficits

The obstacle about the qualifications such as the eyesight drops that are hard to be restored is called a _____. It is said with _____ in a thing with less than 0.03 of _____, corrected eyesight in not seeing a thing at all. It is established that the sight person with a disability walks with the person with a _____ such as _____ when going out.

The nick in the _____ is famous as optic UD. Originally for a sight person with a disability with the conditioner was intended to be distinguished, but is supported by a physically unimpaired person, and there is a nick to most bottles now.

There is a _____ to have different sense of color when a general person feels approximately ___% of Japanese people. UD for the _____ of these minority includes UD about the sense of _____. It is important that this does not use the color that a _____ is hard to recognize as much as possible and to post on that there is easy to be the distinction.

UD for hearing impairments

Consideration for the hearing person with a disability includes a laborer using a _____, _____, the sight including the _____, a feeler. Even if it is not a hearing person with a disability, for example, an announcement may be difficult to hear at the time of congestion at the station. It can convey information by the _____ of the electric signboard on this occasion. The ambulance informs a situation with not only the sound of the siren but also the red lamp. UD for the hearing is solved by means using sight, a feeler. However, the ear cannot be completely equivalent to the _____ who had a decline in the eye. UD is not a thing guaranteeing that _____ surely.