5. Answers to the questionnaire for Japanese students

A) How was it?

- I could enjoy the new style experiment.
- There were times we talked without the foreign student so I think that was not good.
- I didn't know what kind of topic to share(Taboos for foreign people, what kind of topics would they enjoy). When there are more than three people in the group, it is hard to start the conversation or it is hard to see who will respond. (No matter if it's with foreign people or not, it is hard to communicate in this situation.)

- I couldn't talk a lot because I didn't know when to talk but it was a great experience.
- It was a good opportunity because I could imagine what would I do if this kind of situation actually happened.

6. Observation

There was little silence and both foreign student and Japanese students brought some topics. There were few Japanese students who didn't talk a lot but those students showed their good attitude by nodding. Also, when the foreign student wasn't able to get in the conversation, some students noticed and asked the foreign students for response.
